Thank you for filling out this application; we know it takes both time and strength during this difficult time. The DC community stands behind our workers and businesses, and we will work together to help our local economy recover from this public health emergency.

General Tips

- Complete the application on your computer, rather than your phone.
- Complete the application using Google Chrome or Firefox, if possible.
- After you have passed the eligibility section in the application, do not click your browser's back button. Navigate sections by clicking on the navy bars along the top of the application.
- It's easiest to complete the application in one sitting. Create an account, check that you are eligible, and then gather the following information so you're ready to go as you fill out the application.

Frequently Asked Questions

What does "local" mean exactly?

You are considered "local" if your main office is in DC. The main office is wherever the chief executive officer and highest level managerial employees manage and lead the business or organization. If you are an independent contractor or self-employed, you must live in DC. If you are a nonprofit, your services should not extend beyond the DMV region, unless you are an arts or cultural organization (such as a touring dance company based in the District).

Can I see the whole application before I get started?

Yes! Check out the complete business and independent contractor application and the complete non-profit application before you get started.

Can I ask a question about my materials before submitting my application?

Yes! Please email dmped.grants@dc.gov with your question and as much detail as possible.

I arrived at a page that says that I'm not eligible. What should I do now?

Unfortunately, you're not eligible for the DC Economic Recovery Microgrant, but we want to make sure you get the help you need. Check out these other resources for small business recovery.

You may be eligible for low-interest, long-term repayment Disaster Loan Assistance from the federal U.S. Small Business Administration. The loan can cover payroll, debt payments, and accounts payable. Apply for a federal loan now.

I made a mistake answering the eligibility questions. How can I fix it?

If you think you made an error in the "Step 1: Learn about my eligibility" section, you can restart your application here if you are a business or independent contractor, and here if you are nonprofit. You can review the answers you provided on the "Sorry, you're not eligible" page.

I need to update my email address, but I have already submitted my application.

Once your application is submitted, you cannot edit your application. If you have made an error in your contact information, please send an e-mail to dmped.grants@dc.gov

Technical Troubleshooting Tips

I've lost the correct links.

We've got you!

- If you are a business or independent contractor and want to start a new application, click here.
- If you are a nonprofit and want to start a new application, click here.
- If you have started an application and want to finish it, click here.

When I go to the links above, I get an error message.

Please wait ten minutes and try again. If that doesn't help, take a picture or screenshot of the message and e-mail MS_DMPEDGRANTS_Grantmaking@blackbaud.com.

I've forgotten my password.

No problem! Click the "Forgot Password" link available on the account login page. Your new password is everything immediately after "Your password is:" and before the period. When you click the link in the email, copy and paste this new password into the "current password" field, and then type your new password into the "new password" and "confirm new password" fields.

I've started an application and can't find it again.

If you've started an application and want to finish it, click here. Log in, and then click on your "in progress" application.

If you try to create another account with an email you used to create an account before, you will get an error message saying: "Invalid email or password." If you do, click "Return to login" and then "Forgot Password" to recover your password.

I want to start a new application.

If you are a business, self-employed, or an independent contractor and want to start a new application, click here. If you are a nonprofit and want to start a new application, click here.

I've clicked the back button in my browser and I can't get back into the application.

Click here and then click on your "in progress" application.

My files are too big and I can't upload them.

You should be able to upload large files, it may just take a few minutes.

I'm having technical difficulties with the application.

Please email MS_DMPEDGRANTS_Grantmaking@blackbaud.com with your question and as much detail as possible, including screenshots.

Can I navigate back on my application or go to the previous step if I made an error?

You can use the normal browser "back" arrow in the "Step 1: Learn about my eligibility" section. When on the application (every section starting from "Step 2: Get Ready"), we recommend navigating using the blue rectangles along the top of the page.

How do I know my application was submitted?

After you submit the application, you will receive an email from "Office of the Deputy Mayor for Planning and Economic Development" that the proposal was successfully submitted. If you do not receive this email, please be sure to check your SPAM filter.

If your application was saved but not submitted, you will receive an email saying: "Your application has been saved but not yet submitted." To submit your application, please return to your account via the link in the email. You can resume your application at any point before the deadline.

Instructions for Small Businesses

STEP 1 OF 11: LEARN ABOUT YOUR ELIGIBILITY

Question 1: Certify that your business's main physical address is in Washington DC. If you are self-employed and live in Washington DC, you can also select "Yes."

Question 2: Ensure that your business is not one of the following categories:

- adult entertainment
- a bank
- financial services
- E-commerce
- seasonal (only operates part of the year)
- a liquor store, tobacco store, or cannabis dispensary
- a franchise

Question 3: Your small business also must be in Good Standing. There cannot be any outstanding judgements, tax debts over $200 without a payment plan, or active/pending lawsuits affiliated with your business.

Question 4: One of the following must apply to your small business. This is to ensure that a majority of business operations take place in Washington, DC:

- More than 50% of the business is owned by District residents.
- More than 50% of my gross receipts originate in the District. (more than half of sales are in DC)
- More than 50% of my employees are District residents.
- I am an independent contractor or self-employed individual and a District resident.

Question 5: Your business must fall under the federal definition of a "small business" as set forth by the Small Business Administration (SBA). You qualify if:

- Your revenue is less than the industry standard. The linked document provides either the revenue or employee size maximum to be considered a small business. The document is organized by NAICS Code, which you can look up here. SBA also has an interactive tool you can use to see if your business qualifies as small here.

Question 6: Great Streets grantees from FY20 (October 1, 2019 - September 31, 2020) are not eligible for a microgrant. Grantees who were awarded in a fiscal year other than FY20 are eligible.
